Call to worship

- L: God blesses us with gifts of love,
- P: with relationships that bring joy and gratitude.
- L: God blesses us with talents and opportunities to serve,
- P: all we need for faithful living.
- L: God protects us in times of danger:
- P: and guards us from the time of trial.
- L: So, we gather to offer thanksgiving to the Lord our God.
- P: Praise be to God for all good things, now and always!

Prayer of Approach and Confession

L: God of all creation, in this season of thanksgiving for the harvests of the earth, we are struck by the beauties of autumn, leaves in bright colours, birds flying south in formation, fields ripe with produce. Such beauty speaks of your goodness, your desire to provide what each beloved creature needs. As we gather this day, renew our sense of thanksgiving for what you give to us in the fruitfulness of creation, and in Christ Jesus who teaches us how to walk wisely on the earth you made. For all your good gifts we honour you with thanks and praise, now and always.

- P: God of our lives, when we give thanks for your good gifts around us, we know that we enjoy an abundance many cannot even imagine. Yet we confess we do not always see the blessings in which we share. We worry about the future, if we can recover from the pandemic, whether we will have enough for our families to flourish. Forgive our fears of going without, and our failure to be grateful for how much goodness is already ours.
- L: Be at peace this day. Jesus, our High Priest, knows the temptations of the human heart. From the throne of grace, he offers us mercy in our weakness. His strength renews us in faithfulness.

P: Thanks be to God!

Hymn 803 Come, ye thankful people, come

- 1. Come, ye thankful people, come, raise the song of harvest home;
- all is safely gathered in, ere the winter storms begin:
- God, our Maker, doth provide for our wants to be supplied.
- Come to God's own temple, come: raise the song of harvest home.
- 2. All the world is God's own field, fruit unto God's praise to yield;

wheat and tares together sown, unto joy or sorrow grown;

first the blade and then the ear, then the full corn shall appear.

Lord of harvest, grant that we wholesome grain and pure may be.

3. For the Lord our God shall come, and shall take the harvest home;

from the field shall in that day all offences purge away;

give the angels charge at last in the fire the tares to cast,

but the fruitful ears to store in God's storehouse evermore.

4. Even so, Lord, quickly come to thy final harvest home:

gather thou thy people in, free from sorrow, free from sin;

there, forever purified, in thy presence to abide. Come, with all thine angels, come: raise the glorious harvest home.

Responsive Psalm 90:12-17

L: So teach us to count our days

P: that we may gain a wise heart.

L: Turn, O LORD! How long? Have compassion on your servants!

P: Satisfy us in the morning with your steadfast love, so that we may rejoice and be glad all our days. Make us glad for as many days as you have afflicted us, and for as many years as we have seen evil.

L: Let your work be manifest to your servants, and your glorious power to their children.

P: Let the favour of the Lord our God be upon us, and prosper for us the work of our hands—O prosper the work of our hands!

Ongoing life of the church

Scripture: (other lectionary readings below) Mark 10:17-31

¹⁷ As [Jesus] was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, 'Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' ¹⁸ Jesus said to him, 'Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. ¹⁹ You know the commandments: "You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honour your father and mother."' ²⁰ He said to him, 'Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth.' ²¹ Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, 'You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.' ²² When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions.

²³ Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, 'How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!' ²⁴ And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, 'Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! ²⁵ It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.' ²⁶ They were greatly astounded and said to one another, 'Then who can be saved?' ²⁷ Jesus looked at them and said, 'For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible.'

²⁸ Peter began to say to him, 'Look, we have left everything and followed you.' ²⁹ Jesus said, 'Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, ³⁰ who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age—houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields, with persecutions—and in the age to come eternal life. ³¹ But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.'

Pastoral Care

There is some good news about pastoral care. The Cambridge Hospital is now allowing clergy visits for patients! Unfortunately, there is not yet a way for visiting clergy to look up on the list to see who might be in the hospital so, if you would like to request a hospital visit for a loved one, please do call the church to let us know that they are in the hospital.

Week of Vacation

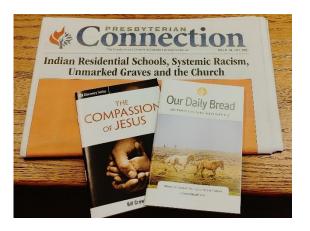

Rev. Scott will be off for a week of vacation from October 16 - 22. Rev. Bill Bynum of Knox Preston will be available throughout the week should an urgent pastoral issue arise. (Church: 519-653-6691, Home: 519-616-9252). Clerk of Session, Steve Marsh, will be preaching next Sunday.

If you have questions or would like to volunteer, please speak with Joni (jsmith@standrewshespeler.ca) Thank you!

Other Lectionary Readings

Amos 5:6-7, 10-15

⁶ Seek the LORD and live, or he will break out against the house of Joseph like fire, and it will devour Bethel, with no one to quench it.

 Ah, you that turn justice to wormwood, and bring righteousness to the ground!
They hate the one who reproves in the gate, and they abhor the one who speaks the truth.

¹¹ Therefore, because you trample on the poor and take from them levies of grain,

you have built houses of hewn stone,

but you shall not live in them;

you have planted pleasant vineyards,

but you shall not drink their wine.

¹² For I know how many are your transgressions, and how great are your sins—you who afflict the righteous, who take a bribe, and push aside the needy in the gate.

¹³ Therefore the prudent will keep silent in such a time;

for it is an evil time.

¹⁴ Seek good and not evil, that you may live; and so the LORD, the God of hosts, will be with you,

just as you have said.

¹⁵ Hate evil and love good,

and establish justice in the gate; it may be that the LORD, the God of hosts, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.

Hebrews 4:12-16

¹² Indeed, the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. ¹³ And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account.

¹⁴ Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. ¹⁵ For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. ¹⁶ Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Supporting New Ministries

In 2019, with support from Presbyterians Sharing, The Presbyterian Church in Canada started Cyclical PCC, a church planting support initiative. Since its beginning, God has blessed this initiative with 47 faithful, dedicated, and innovative people who feel called to begin new ministries. Rani Ibrahim, a participant in Cyclical PCC, said that the relationships he has formed with other Presbyterian leaders have been especially meaningful.

Sunday, October 10 (Harvest Sunday) We pray for farmers and farm workers as they steward the soil and work to grow and harvest food.

Monday, October 11 (Thanksgiving Day) We give thanks to God for the earth and all its beauty and resources, and we pray for a more just care of the earth and its resources.

Tuesday, October 12 We thank God for the water that sustains us and all other living things in creation, and we pray for the will to protect this precious gift through prayer and advocacy.

Wednesday, October 13 We pray for the house churches in the Cariboo region of British Columbia, and that they grow in outreach to their neighbours with the love of Jesus to transform lives.

Thursday, October 14 We pray for the people, ministries, and mission of the Presbytery of Essex-Kent in Ontario.

Friday, October 15 We pray for the people of Guatemala and the staff at the Protestant Center for Pastoral Studies in Central America as they continue to struggle with the effects of the pandemic and natural disasters.

Saturday, October 16 (World Food Day) We pray for smallholder farmers who are suffering the effects of climate change, and we give thanks for Presbyterian World Service & Development partners that are striving to end hunger.
