Our focus scripture this week is Psalm 29. When we talk about God, we often talk about the role God plays in our lives. Psalm 29 is thought to be one of the earliest psalms, perhaps adapted from a similar poem dedicated to the Canaanite storm God, Baal. It praises God, who is omnipotent and demonstrates this in the way nature bends and breaks at the sound of God's voice. The book of Psalms offers many roles for God: creator, healer, provider, saviour, judge, protector. Divine balance and fullness are found in the book, as in the diversity of human experience over a lifetime.

Psalm 29 challenges us in the midst of our fear, our pain, our celebration, not to forget that God is sovereign—"enthroned over the flood."
